

CONGRESS HAS MADE ITS PLAN

Kills The Age Limit And Retains the Clerks
Under Appropriation Bill.

DEFEATED PRINCE AND HARDWICK

All Items Thrown Out On Point Of Order Are Referred In The Measure Which Gives
$75,000,000.

[Special to The Gazette.]

Washington, March 31.—The house Friday passed the legislative executive and judicial appropriation bill, reducing it $700,000 from the figures of last year, but taking a strong stand against any efforts to separate government employees from the pay roll. The main point at issue was the provision providing an age limit for clerks, which has caused so much controversy during the two weeks that the measure has been under discussion. Mr. Ketter of Ohio came to the rescue with a point of order, and this was sufficient to cause its elimination.

Mr. Overstreet, chairman of the postoffice committee, following his objections made Thursday against the appropriation committee usurping the prerogatives of his committee, moved to strike out a paragraph relating to the so-called "postage stamp agency" for which an appropriation was carried. Mr. Tawney, in defense, said that while the postmaster general had dropped the bureau, the committee felt that the clerks should be provided for, and his plea sufficed.

An effort was made to discontinue the services of special agents to investigate trade conditions abroad, the bill carrying $30,000 to pay salaries and expenses, but it failed. All the items which were struck out on point of order by Messrs. Prince and Hardwick were restored and the bill was passed. It carries a total of $30,000,000.

Cautious announcement was made by Representative Bartholdt of Missouri that the house committee on public buildings, of which he is chairman, had finished its consideration of the public building bill. As to the exact contents of this "pork barrel" the most remarkable reticence was observed, but Mr. Bartholdt admitted that the aggregate would be about $5,000,000. The members of the committee are afraid that those who failed to have items included will defeat the measure. If necessary some of the "hostiles" will be placated by being allowed to thrust their hands in the barrel. As is usual, the bill has grown far beyond the economical limit first announced for it, and there is complaint already heard that it is not large enough as it stands.

Mr. Family Man—I'm about through with using coal; and I hope that while I'm having my troubles with the ice man you'll have your argument out now, and not next winter.

COMPEL SHOP GIRLS TO REDUCE GIRTHS

Cruelties Reported From West End,
London, Costume and Modist Stores.

[Special to The Gazette.]

London, March 31.—A popular agitation has begun in favor of the abolition of what are declared to be positive cruelties imposed upon the girl assistants employed by the fashionable west end customers and modistes. These assistants, it is said, are compelled to keep their waists laced in to a certain measurement, no matter what their normal figure may be. Failure or inability to do this leads to dismissal. It is said that in order to keep their figures many of the girls have to sleep in their corsets. It is further declared that it is no uncommon thing for the head of a department to call the girls together at periodic intervals and measure their waists, and give those who are above the maximum a few days in which to reduce the girth, or leave the place.

PACIFIC STATE FARMERS GET CHEAPEST PHONES

[Special to The Gazette.]

Salem, Ore., March 31.—The Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company, which operates the telephone system in this city and vicinity, will tomorrow put into effect what are believed to be the cheapest farmer-line rentals existing anywhere in the country. A regular rate of $5 a year will be charged for the country lines, all of which run into the main office in this city and have connections with the long-distance lines. For farmers who furnish their own instruments on these lines a still lower rate is made. The rental for these phones will be but one dollar a year or eight and one-third cents a month, giving them telephonic communication with their neighbors and with the tradesmen in the city.

Des Moines, Ia., March 31.—At the joint session of the Iowa Mine Workers' union and the operators today a scale committee was appointed to meet in Des Moines next Tuesday to agree upon the scale for the next two years. This action means the 1903 scale will probably be accepted by the operators of Iowa with only the details to be arranged.

BILLIARD STROKE VERY EXPENSIVE

Doctor Accidentally Hit with Cue Was Deprived of Hearing—Gets Annuity of $3250.

[Special to The Gazette.]

Berlin, March 31.—An odd accident and a consequent suit for damages just settled at Hanover is receiving much attention in the German press. According to the story, two visitors at a cafe were engaged in a game of billiards. One of the billiard players, a "gentleman farmer" in training for a stroke, was unfortunately enough to hit one of the card players, a doctor, so hard behind the ear with the butt end of his cue that the victim was knocked senseless. The sequel was an action for damages brought by the injured man, who complained of having, through the defendant's fault, been permanently deprived of his hearing. Evidence having been given by four aural specialists, the court awarded the doctor an annuity of $3,200 for life, costs being divided. An appeal to a superior court, and finally to the supreme court of the empire, resulted in the verdict being commuted to a payment of $3,250 in cash, which is a pretty high price for a game of billiards.

The case has attracted great attention throughout this section and many visitors are expected in the city for the trial. The colored people have raised a fund to aid in the defense of Gibson.

WILL MAKE RAIN IN THE YUKON VALLEY

Thousands of Dollars Were Lost Last Season by Lack of Water at Hydraulic Plants.

[Special to The Gazette.]

Los Angeles, Cal., March 31.—Chas. M. Hatfield, the famous rainmaker of this city, has been engaged by contract with the Yukon territorial government to make rain in the Klondike during the coming mining season. According to the contract Hatfield must be on the ground by May 1 with an assistant and the rain-making apparatus. Last summer the Klondike hydraulic plants suffered the loss of thousands of dollars that they would have harvested had there been big rains. The rain-making plan was suggested and fostered by J. T. Lithgow, territorial controller, who had come in touch with Hatfield's work while here on a visit. By the terms of the contract Hatfield is to receive $10,000 provided he makes rain to the satisfaction of a board of seven men, three of whom shall be chosen by the governor of the Yukon, three by Hatfield and one by the first six. Should Hatfield fail to produce rain to the satisfaction of the board, or the majority of the board, he will receive only his cost of transportation to and from the Klondike and maintenance for himself and assistant. Of the $10,000 half is to be paid by ten of the largest mining operators in the Yukon. The other half is to be paid by the Yukon government. Hatfield agrees to produce rain to the satisfaction of the board. No stipulated quantity of rain by inches is required, but it is specifically stated in the contract that he shall increase the rainfall and renew it from time to time for four months, as may be named by the board, and sufficient to insure, so far as ample rain will, a successful and prosperous summer for placer mining industries of the Dawson district. Five days will be allowed after each precipitation by the board for the rain to come.

MINERS READY TO TAKE WORK

Individual Operators Given Opportunity To Sign The Scale Of 1903.

ROBBINS WILL RETAIN ALL HIS MEN

Mine Owners In Other States Are Expected To Fall In Line And Take Advantage Of The Offer Made.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 31.—The coal strike will not be national in extent. It will be confined to approximately three-fourths of the bituminous fields of the country.

It possibly may include all of the anthracite regions.

So far as the mine workers are concerned there will be no arbitration of the question at present. The miners in convention Friday treated lightly the operators' proposal that their differences be referred to a commission to be appointed by President Roosevelt. It was consigned to the "members."

The action of the miners in this regard was in support of the step President Mitchell took Thursday night when a telegram signed by Mitchell and Francis L. Robbins was sent to President Roosevelt, conveying information that operators controlling 50 per cent of the bituminous tonnage stood ready to accede to the miners' demands.

The operators in favor of arbitration claimed to represent 80 per cent of the tonnage.

Break in Strike Certain.

When the convention adjourned Friday it was a settled fact that 509,500 men in the anthracite and bituminous fields will be on strike Saturday night. These will remain on strike until settlements have been signed by districts or with individual operators.

The only miners at work on Monday will be 25,000 men in the New River, Pocahontas, Fairmount, and central fields of West Virginia, where an agreement was made several days ago to allow the men to continue at work until the district convention, now in session at Charleston, has reached a disagreement with the operators.

The repeal of the Ryan resolution, which provided for a collective agreement, was the feature of the miners' convention. This means that the operators of the country who are willing to restore the mining scale of 1903 may run their mines as soon as the scale is signed.

Francis L. Robbins announced Friday night he will take advantage of the miners' offer. A small percentage of the Ohio, Indiana and Illinois operators are expected to fall in line behind Robbins. The Iowa mine owners also are expected to accept this chance to continue operations.

Mitchell's View of Case.

President Mitchell believes the effect of this will be more important than appears at first thought.

It means that the strike, within two weeks, will be minimized by 60 per cent," he declared.

Mr. Mitchell bases his prediction on the theory that scores of mine owners in every state will be forced, by the opening of the Robbins mines, to operate their shafts, in order to avert ruin by loss of trade.

The opening of the Robbins mines alone means the employment of 25,000 miners in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois. Enough others, Mr. Mitchell believes, will run to furnish work for 100,000 more men. The weakening, he says, will not come immediately, but soon.

If President Mitchell's theory is correct there is little probability of a coal famine. If, as he asserts, 60 per cent of the bituminous mines will be operating within the next two weeks, it is possible, beyond an advance in the price of fuel, the diminished supply hardly will be felt.

MINERS FOLLOWED THE LEADER.

Mitchell labored zealously Friday with the minor delegates to bring about this result. When reluctance to take this step, which might disrupt the national organization of miners, appeared in the convention, the leader threw his own weight into the scales and turned the tide of sentiment.

IT IS FOR THE BEST INTERESTS OF OURSELVES AND THE COUNTRY," HE TOLD THE MINERS.

In the long and bitter discussion of the question whether or not to accept the desired increase where it was offered President Mitchell was steadfast for acceptance. He argued for it eloquently and finally threatened. Ultimately President Mitchell won his way and a national strike was averted.

Under a resolution introduced by President Perry of the Illinois miners district officials are authorized to sign a contract for two years on the basis of the 1903 scale and conditions.

President Mitchell, having assured the curtailment of the bituminous strike, next will make a strong effort to avert a continued conflict in the anthracite regions. His peace efforts in this field, however, have less chance of being successful.

Technically, only a suspension of work will occur in the three anthracite mining districts beginning on Monday. The men will walk out on that day and be on a strike regarded as temporary pending the negotiations in New York with the anthracite operators' committee.

HILL AND HARRIMAN LINES IN RACE FOR MAIL CONTRACT

[Special to The Gazette.]

Chicago, Ill., March 31.—Another race against time between transcontinental railways will be inaugurated next week, when the Harriman and Hill systems will begin a contest for the contract to carry the mails to the Pacific northwest. The postoffice department is so well pleased with the fast mail train to San Francisco recently put on that it has asked for a train to Portland and Seattle. It is expected that a saving of a full day will be made over the present time. The Harriman system will run a train over the Northwestern from this city to Omaha, the Union Pacific and the Oregon Short Line. Mr. Hill will use the Burlington from Chicago to Billings, Mont., and the Northern Pacific to the coast.

New York, March 31.—The special committee of trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance company appointed to examine into the company's affairs made public its fifth report today. EXPRESS COMPANY PAYS $75 FOR $350 SEALSKIN —SACQUE LOST IN TRANSIT

Through a local furrier, Mrs. Cannon of California, who has been a guest of Mrs. A. C. Kent during the past winter, some time ago sent a three-hundred-and-fifty-dollar sealskin sacque to an out-of-town repairer. In transit the valuable coat, along with other furs, was lost and the past few months have been spent by the express company in an attempt to trace the goods. The efforts were unsuccessful and to settle the matter the carrying company paid the owner of the sacque seventy-five dollars.

The action, however, will be deferred until after the commission has conducted further hearings in other cities.

ALEXANDER BERKMANN IS SUCCESSOR TO HERR MOST

Would-Be Assassin of Henry C. Frick Will Have Completed Workhouse Sentence Next July.

[Special to The Gazette.]

Pittsburg, Pa., March 31.—There is nothing in the appearance of Alexander Berkman to suggest the high priest of anarchy. The late Johann Most, with his unkempt beard and hair and his uninviting countenance, was so far as appearances went the typical bomb-throwing anarchist as pictured in the public press. But Berkman is of an entirely different appearance. He impresses the casual observer as a quiet, inoffensive man and about the last person in the world to be given to deeds of violence.

But those who have had an opportunity of studying Berkman during his confinement in prison declare that he is a fitting successor to Herr Most as the fountain-head of anarchistic propaganda in America. He is not of the same noisy, blustering type as Most, but beneath his quiet exterior he is believed to conceal more personal daring and, even deeper hatred of the existing social fabric. He has been an exemplary prisoner during the fourteen years he has been behind prison walls, and has studied unceasingly. He has perfected himself in several languages, French, Italian and the Slavonic, and is prepared to make an active campaign in favor of the red flag. It has been said that he is now an advocate of education instead of an apostle of force. But those who have closely studied the man declare that he will leave prison as much of an anarchist as he was on the day he shot at Henry C. Frick, and an anarchist of the same type as he was then. Mr. Frick evidently shares this opinion. When the man is released one of the world's most famous anarchists will take up his trail, and until he or Mr. Frick dies, Berkman never will be left unmatched. It will cost Mr. Frick $10,000 a year.

DIVINE HEALER
THOUGHT A FAKE

APPLETON CRESCENT BELIEVES
REAL SCHLATTER IS DEAD.

STARVED IN NEW MEXICO

Individual Purporting To Be the Original Was Here Last Sunday "Healing" Diseases.

Anent the recent visit of an individual styling himself "Schlatter, the Divine Healer" and the alleged curing of a number of Janesville's supposed chronic sick, the following from the Appleton Crescent will be found interesting:

Publication recently by Denver papers of a news story from Salt Lake City, Utah, giving details of the finding of the body of a man supposed to be "Schlatter, the Divine Healer," who disappeared from Denver in 1896, would seem to stamp the individual who recently came to the Fox River Valley and posed for several weeks as "Schlatter," as an impostor and a fraud, a possibility that was suggested at the time.

Explanation is Given.
This unknown person who visited Appleton and has traveled extensively in the state, gave his name as Rev. Dr. Charles McLean and told a story of his being buried alive for forty days, and it is believed, now that the tale is the same fake that was given out the year after the disappearance of the original healer from Denver.

The most plausible explanation is that the individual who came here knew of the real Schlatter's disappearance and the mystery that surrounded it and had taken the name of the healer to further his own ends. The account of the finding of Schlatter's bones is published by the Denver Post and according to that paper, the story of the discovery of the shoe-maker and "healer's" remains comes from Salt Lake City, Utah, and is a plausible solution of his strange disappearance from Denver, where his operations caused such a stir the country over.

Student Finds Bones.
In the latter day college found a skeleton while traveling through Mexico near the border line. There was a pole fastened between two trees and hanging on this were articles of wearing apparel. The student lifted the head of the skeleton and it dropped from the body showing that the owner had been dead many months. This was in 1897 and Schlatter left Denver early in 1896. Examining the clothing the student found a bible, on the fly leaf of which was written the name "Schlatter" together with the inscription "New Orleans From Your Friend."

Schlatter operated extensively in Denver and attained much notoriety. Men journeyed to him from California and other distant states and he created a general furor. Announcing that he was going into the desert to pray the "healer" disappeared one night.

The day following he was seen astride an old gray horse headed for New Mexico. The remains of the animal were found nearby where the skeleton of the man lay and it is the generally accepted theory that Schlatter, the original, came to his death either from starvation or exhaustion.

"IT'S UP TO YOU" AT THE MYERS THEATRE

Charles Grapewin and His Company
Made a Very Good Impression Last Evening.

Not a large audience but an appreciative one greeted Charles Grapewin and his company in George V. Robert's farce comedy, "It's Up To You, John Henry," at the Myers theatre last evening. The play is suggestive of several others that have been seen here within the past year or two. The leading character, "John Henry," as well as the snappy slang expressions, are reminiscent of "Cheekers," and the pantomime of the "man who gets up and goes out" with increasing precipitancy through the swinging doors of the hotel lobby, brings back to mind the remarkable old detective in "Little Johnny Jones." It is not an extraordinary play but it provides enough amusing characters, curious situations, and harmless nonsense to keep the spectators' mind off the spring house cleaning. The six-room country scene in the second act is an elaborate and novel innovation. Miss Anna Chance plays the leading feminine role with grace and all sorts of dilemmas fade away before Grapewin's magnetic personality and contagious smile. Miss Chance and the St. Cecilia quartette provide some excellent musical numbers and James Grant and a companion do a clever song and dance sketch. Nat Kolby gives a good delineation of "Kid Dawson." The six feminine members of the "Wide Awake" club fill in the picture to advantage at frequent intervals.

General News.
The provision in a railroad ticket that in the case of dispute between the passenger and a conductor as to the right of a passenger to use the ticket, the passenger should pay the conductor's claim, take his receipt and report the matter to the general passenger agent, is held unreasonable and void by the Missouri supreme court in Cherry vs. Chicago and Alton Railroad company, (90 South-western Rep. 381).

Some railroad men who have been watching for signs of life from the committee of western railroad officials which offered to keep the interstate commerce commission posted, about violations of the interstate commerce laws have about given up hope of results. A member of the committee was asked yesterday what had become of this body, and he replied: "The railroads are so good there is no need for such a committee. In fact, it has already accomplished what it was intended for, because I do not believe there is today a single violation of the interstate commerce law attributable to the railroads. Some of the railroad men may have a different idea as to how the law should be interpreted, but some of the members of the commission, but I believe there can be no just complaint against the railroads. No, I don't know of any case of violations the committee has brought to the attention of the interstate commerce commission."

JUSTICE TO ALL; TO THE RIGHT; VICTORY

Case of the Lawyers Versus the Tax
Payers is Called for Next Tuesday.

The following communication is published by request. It contains some thoughts which are worth considering, thoughts which may not have occurred to every voter in deciding who he shall vote for circuit judge.—Editor.

To The Editor:

I really should address this to the voters. It is the voters to whom I wish to talk. The mask is off the faces of the attorneys who seek to defeat Judge Dunwiddie. They cannot say anything against Judge Dunwiddie, so they attack Francis Grant because he is working hard in Judge Dunwiddie's campaign. For personal reasons some half dozen lawyers seek to dictate the votes of you and me, seek to make us the monkeys to pull their chestnuts from the fire. Their broad and lofty statements as to their reasons for desiring Judge Sale's election appear to have vanished in thin air and the grinning, leering face of envy with its green eyes appears in its stead: beat Dunwiddie anyway. If you can't attack him, attack Grant. They have been unable to bring one argument against Judge Dunwiddie as a man, as a lawyer, as a jurist and falling in this they have made a bitter personal attack upon a man who has succeeded where they have failed. I ask the voters of this county if they are going to stand for this? If they are going to be party to a scheme to defeat an honest jurist that the whim of a few attorneys can be satisfied? It is the people against the attorneys in this fight. It is the man who pays the expenses of the court voting in their own interest or for the interest of the men who desire to control the court's policy for personal reasons. I ask you voters if you had not rather trust the judge whom the attorneys are fighting than believe their sincerity in the matter? Think this over and on Tuesday next vote for Judge Dunwiddie.

AN Opinion on C. D. Rosa of Beloit.

To the Voters of Rock County.
By an act of the legislature, creating a municipal court in the city of Beloit, it becomes your duty as citizens of Rock county to elect a judge to preside over that court. Nothing need now be said in regard to the passing of the bill creating the court by the last legislature, except that there was an exceedingly strong demand for the court on the part of all the various interests of Beloit. Strong petitions were sent me, as a member of the assembly from the third district urging the passage of the bill.

When it is considered what this court means to Beloit and what more it will mean in the future when the rapid growth of the city is considered, then it need not be wondered at that citizens should be interested in the election of the proper man for judge. The value of any court depends upon the character and ability of the one who acts in the capacity of judge. The law, to be sure, must act as his guide. Then comes a proper interpretation of those laws in order that justice may be done. A man, to be considered a proper person to sit in judgment upon his fellow men, should be one who possesses a character which inspires respect and confidence. When justice is sought, and a just fear when punishment is deserved. He should be in all respects an honest, upright man, who never by his actions has brought discredit upon himself or his profession. One who, above all things, never has betrayed a trust reposed within him. One who is morally clean; who respects himself and thereby gains the respect of his fellow citizens. A man who aspires to the responsible position of judge should remember that, at all times, he should stand as nearly as possible an example of moral rectitude. Believing that the work, so far as carried out, has been well done, and hoping that now, in choosing a judge, there will be no mistake made, I take this opportunity of joining with citizens of Rock county in endorsing the candidacy of C. D. Rosa of Beloit. Mr. Rosa, as a citizen is held in high esteem by all who know him. He is a Rock county man by birth and has lived in the county most of his life. He was born on a farm in the town of Center and was educated at the Evansville seminary, Beloit college academy, and Beloit college. Although he had to work his own way through school, he graduated from Beloit college second in a strong class. He was, after graduation, principal of the Edgerton city schools for three years. He later completed a two-year law course at the University of Wisconsin in two years. Since that time he has built up a good practice in Beloit. Although a young man he has accomplished many things of which a much older man might be proud. He is believed to be fully qualified to fill this responsible position with credit to himself and to the court and will make an honest, upright judge.

To you as voters I would respectfully urge, the serious consideration of this matter in the line of a duty.

RAIN CAUSED BIG LANDSLIDE

Part of Chester, Ill., Moves Forty Feet Toward River.

Chester, Ill., March 31.—Owing to the heavy rain of the past week a large tract of ground detached itself from the hills and slid down toward the river Friday, taking with it a 200-foot section of the main street leading to the courthouse, four frame dwellings, all occupied, and a blacksmith shop. The movement of the earth caused great consternation among the occupants of the houses, who hurriedly moved out. No one was injured. One of the houses is forty feet nearer the river than before the slide.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purposes.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectively clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from the continued use of them, but on the contrary great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat. I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

Seals on sale at ticket office Saturday at 9 o'clock.

With the first half of the race for the news trophies just finished, the contest turns into the closing weeks with the largest measure of success to its credit ever achieved by a similar project in this portion of the state. It may probably be concluded now that the nominations are practically all in. There are rumors of some new nominations to be made near the close of the campaign, but with the votes piling up as they have been during the last few days for all the leaders only the limited support of some of the neighboring towns would give such a plan a fighting chance for success.

While the interest which has been aroused during the opening weeks has rarely if ever been equalled in Rock county it is these last two weeks, and particularly the closing days which are going to furnish the real excitement of the campaign.

For it is going to be a "tip and tuck" finish between twelve or fifteen of the leaders. At least that much now seems certain. And to go further than this and attempt to name the probable winners would call for more than the average confidence in one's judgment. The question of who will finally wear the diamonds and which of the societies represented will carry off the "old glories" is coming up more frequently as the days go by and there are but few of the candidates in either list who have not been picked to win by some of their friends.

The question of what form the final closing of the polls and the official canvass will take is also frequently asked. These plans have not been worked out in detail, but they will follow as closely as circumstances will permit the closing and final count in a regular election.

The committee will be given all of the votes, all of the records, and the register of certificates, and each candidate will be given to representatives before the committee. The polls will be declared closed promptly on schedule time and the ballot boxes sealed in the presence of the judges as in a regular election. It is too early for a complete program as yet but it will be given out in detail far enough in advance to give everyone a full opportunity to suggest any changes that may be thought necessary.

Miss Wills takes the position of honor today with a plurality of over two thousand votes, moving up from fourth place over Mrs. Spicer, Mrs. Dunwiddie and Mrs. Mason. Over eight thousand votes were polled for her yesterday, more than twice as many as have been received by any of the candidates in a single day. It was a remarkable vote and one which will probably not be equalled until the ballots are cast for the closing rally.

They were a fine endorsement from a host of friends. The vote throughout the day was lighter than usual. Mrs. Spicer was the next strongest favorite with 2655 votes. Mrs. Mason had 1434. Miss Conroy 1104 and Miss Dunwiddie 1063. Mr. Smith had the largest vote in his list, 1500 in all.

Mr. Hemmens had 923. All the rest of the leaders appear to have held their votes for another day, but the results for the day were large enough to put the grand total away over the hundred thousand line and were on the way to another twenty thousand to the good.

There is a supreme court judge to be elected Tuesday. Make your selection wisely.

Vote against that Dunn pocket ballot law. It is a steal of funds from the state treasury.

Aside from the election in Rock, Green and Jefferson counties the rest of the state hold elections on Monday.

Former members of the school board are conducting a vigorous campaign against Francis Grant in the second ward, seeking his defeat for school commissioner for personal reasons. Voters should know this before voting.

Aside from the judicial ticket to be elected next Tuesday every voter should remember there is a city attorney to be selected and should cast their votes for Harry L. Maxfield for this office. He is the regular republican nominee and if this means anything he should be elected.

Second warders are advised to cast their ballots for George Buchholz for alderman and for H. L. Skavlem for supervisor. John Comstock for constable and Francis Grant for school commissioner.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

Disgraceful scenes which have been enacted by the university students at Madison within the past week have disgusted many former adherents of the football game. For years the abuse of the amateur privileges of athletics has been growing evil at the state university. Prowess of the football team, the baseball nine, the track team and the crew have been of more importance than the winning of a joint debate, in addition of some noted man to the faculty or wonderful discovery in science. The old spirit of the Romans who loved the arena and the work of the gladiators, has been predominant. Thinking men, men who looked into the future of the university, have deplored this growth of the animal nature at the expense of the mental. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is true enough, but too much play and too little interest in the real work of life works an equal wrong.

When the state university was founded, when the state set aside public lands for its support, when our later legislatures appropriated large sums of money that new buildings might be erected, they did not expect the students to become athletic mad. Athletics develop the body and the mind as well. Baseball, football, rowing and running all round out the mental work of the students, but there is such a thing as getting too much of it. In the old days before leadership on the gridiron or diamond were of so much importance, inter-class games between the smaller colleges gave zest to a purely amateur sport. Now, when great contests are arranged with Minnesota, with Michigan and with Chicago for football, with Pennsylvania, Columbia, Cornell and Syracuse for rowing, the university of Wisconsin is competing with the largest and best institutions in the country. When to become an athlete and a member of a team long months of training are necessary, the sport has gone out of the game and it has become a professional pastime.

In making his stand against this sort of affairs Professor Frederick Turner has offered himself as a sacrifice on the altar of student popularity to aid in the advancement of the university. The disgraceful mob of hoodlums who paraded the streets of Madison last week, who hooted at honest and conscientious professors who sought to work them good, who burned their figures in effigy are little better than the Chinese boxers who attack Christians in China because they hate their religion. If this is the result of athletics at the university, do away with it entirely. If this is the class of boys and men who are being educated at the expense of the taxpayers of the state, close down the university entirely and set them to work hoeing corn or cleaning the streets; no measures are too harsh to stop such exhibitions. If President Van Hise is not strong enough to hold them in check, demand his resignation and place someone who is. Professor Turner and his associates on the faculty who have endeavored to purify the sports should have the support of every father and mother in the state and the unruly students who made such exhibitions of themselves and their university should be spanked and sent to bed.

If this is higher education, let us thank the good Lord that some of our future citizens are forced to go to work before they reach the college stage, and are not thus to be tempted by the contamination of the element that appears to control the university at the present time. Recently the legislative committee has been making a rigid examination of the university and student life. Too bad they had adjourned before the disgraceful exhibition of the past week; too bad the men that appropriate the people's money with which a gymnasium can be erected, an athletic field purchased, a crew sent east and a football team supported, were not there to see what good use their money was put to. There are hundreds of good students who deplore the situation. Students who have gone to the university to study and equip themselves for their life's work, and it is a shame they are forced to be silent witnesses to the defaming of the fair name of Wisconsin.

There are many homes in the state where the news of the disgraceful happenings of the students brings sadness to a mother's heart. Never until they have children of their own will those students know the sacrifices that have been made, in the majority of cases, that they may have an education. There are homes all over the state where the father and mother are economizing that their son may have an education. There are lots of boys working for their weekly salary and working hard, who would give years of their life to be able to enjoy the advantages these same students are throwing away. It does not follow that to be a good athlete one must necessarily be a poor student. To the athletes themselves this reform is not so hard as it is to the student body who do not take an active part in the athletics beyond cheering for their college team. It is safe to say that in the mob the other night there was not a single athlete of any prominence. It was composed of the boys made mad by an athletic fever. Professor Turner and others have long tried to solve some remedy for this growing evil and as a final result have determined upon the abolishment of football and other sports which tend to professionalize those taking part.

It is perhaps a drastic measure, but it would appear that drastic measures are necessary in the present case. The most drastic possibly, the better. The university is supported by the taxpayers of the state and the taxpayers should heartily endorse the action of the professors who have been men enough to stand up and say like men what they think is right, and what is wrong. The great intercollegiate games of the past few years have become grand debauches for the student body. Drunkenness and gambling on results have been the custom, not the exception. If morality cuts any figure with the future of our citizens it is time to cry a halt.

HUGE MEN AND GREAT MEN.
How big was Alexander, Pa.—
The people called him great;
Was he like old Goliath tall,
His spear a hundred-weight?
Was he a man of giant size,
Like some vast mountain high,
That when his feet were on the ground,
His head would touch the sky?

Never in the history of the judicial campaign in this district has a warmer and fiercer contest for the election been waged. On Tuesday next at the polls the voters, the taxpayers, will demonstrate whether they are to have their right of franchise dictated to them or whether they will exercise the rights of citizenship themselves. Like the small boy asking his father about Alexander, the voter may well ask which of the two Rock county candidates to vote for. Since the beginning of the present campaign the Gazette has maintained that Judge Dunwiddie was the logical candidate if the judgeship is to be retained in Rock county. With the kindest of feelings towards Judge Sale, whose record as a man, a lawyer and a judge is beyond reproach, the election of Judge Dunwiddie is urged upon the voters of this county. The newspapers have been filled with articles relative to this subject, an immense amount of literature has been mailed to the voters; and they should be thoroughly familiar with the situation. The Gazette has urged upon the voters of Rock county the necessity of electing a judge who will keep the court in Rock county. With this fact in mind and the necessity for it, it has urged the election of Judge Dunwiddie for the simple reason that it believes he is stronger in Green and Jefferson counties than Judge Sale. This fact is apparent from the support he is receiving from the influential newspapers in Green county and the strong recommendations that come from Jefferson county. If he can secure a good vote in Rock county he will defeat Judge Grimm; if he fails in this it is safe to say that Judge Grimm will be the next circuit judge. It is up to the people of the county to decide whether they will vote according to the dictation of a coterie of attorneys and lose the judgeship for the county or vote for Judge Dunwiddie in the hopes of saving it for this county.

Lists have been published by the gentlemen conducting Judge Sale's campaign, and where Judge Sale was the strongest there is now great question of his election. An exchange. "The town of La Prairie will probably give Dunwiddie a majority." Statement of a strong Sale supporter. Even Judge Sale's closest friends and advisors say that there is now a great question whether Grimm will not be the next circuit judge, thereby admitting the weakness of their own candidate.

JEWELRY FIRM TO BE FIFTY SUNDAY

Hall & Sayles' Store Passes Half-Century Mark Tomorrow—Oldest in Wisconsin.

Tomorrow the jewelry firm of Hall & Sayles, the oldest in the state of Wisconsin, will have its fiftieth anniversary. The firm was established by Webb & Lee in a store nearly opposite the present location on April 1, 1856, and has since existed under different ownerships. In 1869 it became J. A. Webb & Co. and nine years later A. F. Hall, senior partner in the present firm, took a half interest, the name becoming Webb & Hall. After Mr. Webb's death in 1885 the firm became that of Hall & Farnsworth. This partnership lasted until 1887, when the name changed to A. F. Hall & Co., which existed until 1896. In the latter year the name was changed to Hall, Sayles & Farnsworth, though the partners were the same. In 1904 Mr. Farnsworth retired and the company is now known as Hall & Sayles. Mr. Hall has been in the jewelry business in Janesville thirty-seven years and is probably the oldest jeweler in Wisconsin.

RESIDENT OF ROCK COUNTY FIFTY-FIVE YEARS PASSED AWAY IN THE TOWN OF ROCK

John Terwilliger, Sr., died at the home of his son, Fred Terwilliger, in the town of Rock this morning, after an illness of five days. He was born December 2, 1830, in Pennsylvania and came to Wisconsin at the age of

WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE FOR JUDGE DUNWIDDIE

From every quarter of the county the story is the same—everybody now for Judge Dunwiddie, whether they were before or not. Some because they remember kind words and favors when he was practicing law; some because as jurors or as ones having to do with trials, they have watched and liked his business-like and impartial conduct of the court; others because they wish our judgeships to remain as they are; others again because they realize that Judge Dunwiddie of all the candidates has by far the greater support in the circuit; others again, indifferent a little while ago, but now determined to rebuke the little ring of lawyers seeking for personal end to defeat him; and still others and others coming forward in scores every day, because they have always been his friends and supporters; because they admire not only his swift, keen intellect, going instantly to the point and puncturing frogy and windy arguments; but his wide and ready knowledge of the law and more than all the other reasons because they like his straightforward ways and generous, kindly heart; they will all vote for Judge Dunwiddie.

At Clinton today the special edition of the Clinton Herald, published by prominent citizens who have bought the office for the day, comes out strongly for Judge Dunwiddie and urges every voter to cast their ballot for him on Tuesday next.

"Within the past ten days the sentiment in the county has entirely changed regarding the judicial candidates and where Judge Sale was the strongest there is now great question of his election." An exchange.

"The town of La Prairie will probably give Dunwiddie a majority." Statement of a strong Sale supporter.

Even Judge Sale's closest friends and advisors say that there is now a great question whether Grimm will not be the next circuit judge, thereby admitting the weakness of their own candidate.

The Milton Junction Telephone publishes fourteen columns of endorsement of Judge Dunwiddie in their issue of Friday.

One first ward resident says that he is voting for Judge Dunwiddie because all the lawyers appear to be fighting him and that is good enough recommendation for any man to have the lawyers after him.

Twenty-one. Five children are left to mourn his demise, his wife having preceded him to the other world eleven years ago. The children left are: John, of La Prairie; Ed, of Beloit; Clarence, of Atton, and Fred and Susie, of Rock. Funeral services will be held at the home of his son, Fred Terwilliger, Monday afternoon at one o'clock. Interment will be in Baldwin's cemetery, south of Atton.

APRIL WEATHER BY THE REV. IRL HICKS

St. Louis Seer Makes His Prophecy on the Weather for the Next Month.

Rev. Hicks predicts the first April storm period to be central about the 7th. The Mercury disturbances will cause prolonged cloudiness with unsettled and threatening weather with snow squalls and stiff boreal winds. A reactionary storm following high temperature will pass eastwardly across the country from the 9th to 12th and decidedly cool weather will follow, violent local gusts and hail. The next regular storm period is due about the 10th with a reactionary storm period central from the 22d to 24th. A series of threatening thunder showers will be natural at this time. But should the barometer fall suddenly to low readings, violent and cordial storms would be quite probable. A regular storm period, extending from the 26th to 30th, high temperature will prevail followed by heavy rains and hail in many localities. A change to much cooler will follow up these storms from the northwest.

READ OPINION ON JUDICIAL FIGHT

CHICAGO RECORD-HERALD PUBLISHES INTERESTING VIEW TODAY

"SALE" SHOULD WITHDRAW

Reports from Throughout the County Show Increasing Dunwiddie Sentiment.

That the judicial fight in the twelfth circuit is exciting universal attention not only in the circuit, but in the state, but in the country at large is evidenced by an article which was published on page 9 of the Chicago Record-Herald this morning under a Milwaukee dateline. The article shows so clearly the opinion of an outsider on the judicial situation, from an unbiased point of view, to be the same as that of the Gazette, "that unless Judge Dunwiddie is elected judge, and that Judge Sale has no chance of election," it is repeated for the benefit of those who are in doubt, it is as follows:

Fight in Twelfth
"There is an interesting fight in the twelfth judicial district over the judgeship. The present occupant of the bench is Judge Dunwiddie of Janesville, who is a candidate for reelection. His opponents are Judge Sale of Rock county, Judge Grimm of Jefferson and Judge Becker of Green county. It is admitted that Judge Sale has little chance of election, but by keeping in the fight he is certain to defeat Judge Dunwiddie. Judge Grimm is said to be in the lead at present. His election is predicted unless the Janesville candidates adjust their differences."

About the County.
Word from about the county also shows a strong Dunwiddie sentiment. In the town of La. Prairie where a week ago a prominent Sale man stated that Dunwiddie would not receive ten votes, this same man yesterday made the statement that Dunwiddie would receive the majority and carry the town by a handsome figure. In Brodhead, which was claimed as a Sale stronghold, a prominent citizen of Janesville, not a lawyer, talked with a hundred and fifty voters yesterday and found that the majority were for Dunwiddie. The same is true of Orfordville, where another gentleman, a stranger to the situation, said he was surprised to find such a strong Dunwiddie sentiment.

In the City.
The sentiment appears to be changing in the city as well. When Judge Grimm visited the railway yards and met the trainmen personally, shaking hands with them and asking for their vote he claimed the bulk of the railroad men would vote for him. A careful inspection of the yards today shows the majority of them are favoring Judge Dunwiddie. On all sides is heard the argument: "Why, it is the lawyers against the people and Dunwiddie is the people's candidate." This and the fact that it is generally recognized that Judge Sale will not have as large a vote as was at first thought is causing many of his former supporters to turn to Dunwiddie in hopes of saving the judgeship for Rock county.

One incident illustrating the statement in favor of Judge Dunwiddie was exhibited last evening when a dozen or fourteen residents of Milton Junction in the city on legal business, came into the Gazette office to express their approval of the course the Gazette has taken in trying to save the judgeship for the county and stating that they were all for Judge Dunwiddie and that he would have a handsome majority in Milton and Milton Junction.

At the primaries this spring Harry L. Maxfield was chosen the republican nominee for City Attorney and since has been carrying on a dignified and thorough campaign for the place. Mr. Maxfield is a well-known young man and universally conceded a brilliant lawyer and upright citizen. He is interested in the city and there is no doubt but that he would look after Janesville's best interests as city attorney. He is the law partner of John Winans, one of the greatest of Wisconsin's legal lights, and is at present practicing with William Smith, also a prominent attorney. He is and always has been a republican and should receive the entire vote of that party.

SLAUGHTERED 135 CATTLE THIS WEEK

State Veterinarian E. D. Roberts Condemned 120 in Dane County and 15 Elsewhere.

Under the direction of State Veterinarian E. D. Roberts a total of 135 head of cattle afflicted with tuberculosis have been condemned and slaughtered in the southern portion of the state this week. Twelve full-blooded animals were owned by Delbert Utter of Leke Beulah; three by Arthur and David Williams of Waukesha and the balance by the following farmers and dairymen in the county and vicinity: August Bode, 1; Carl Griffin, 2; Louis LeV. Aulby, 1; Ernest Halverson, 1; J. H. Aulby, 1; Peter Fox, 5; O. S. Huseboe, 6; Matt Landus, 10; A. Chadwick, 5; Andrew Briction, 1; Steve Stevens, 1; Iver Borve, 2; Knudt Evenson, 7; F. Krause, 6; Charles Strassberg, 4; John and Isaac Knapton, 19; A. Hotmar, 6; Frank Stangler, 1; Fred J. Skaltzky, 1. In almost every instance in Deerfield and Medina it was found that, as calves, the cattle had been fed milk from the Medina and Oak Park creameries, indicating that the disease may have been widely disseminated from these central stations. The state veterinarian's department has so many requests for tests and examinations in all parts of the state that it is working night and day.

CULLEN ACQUITTED BY JURORS TODAY

Milton Junction Man Who Gave Dennis Hayes a Thrashing Found Not Guilty of Assault.

Concluding arguments were made by the attorneys conducting the assault and battery action of the State vs. Archie Cullen, Jr., of Milton Junction in municipal court this morning. Every available square yard of standing as well as sitting room in the spectators' gallery was occupied, the large majority of those present who were not witnesses being partisans of the defendant. Five witnesses had testified to the quarrelsome nature of the complainant, Dennis Hayes, and six more, including the Methodist minister, had testified to the good character of Archie Cullen, Jr. This point was dwelt upon by Attorney T. S. Nolan for the defendant, who also vigorously questioned Hayes' statement that after being thrashed he mowed through an alley and pushed him down an embankment against a moving freight train. Attorney Charles Pierce, for the plaintiff, made a strong argument for conviction, laying great stress on the alleged unmerciful character of the thrashing administered two weeks ago last Tuesday and endeavoring to show that there was no sufficient provocation. The jury after deliberating about three minutes returned a verdict of "not guilty" and the defendant, Cullen, was dismissed.

THE SITUATION AT CLINTON DEPICTED

Citizens of Clinton Formulate a Call to the Voters of the County.

There appears to be no question among the citizens of Clinton as to what to do to save the circuit judgeship for Rock county. They see the point raised by the Gazette that it is either Dunwiddie or Grimm and they have rallied to Dunwiddie's support. So enthusiastic have the citizens become they have rented the Clinton Herald's office for today and are getting out an extra edition of the paper to be mailed all over the southern portion of the county, urging the election of Judge Dunwiddie. Today is caucus day at Clinton and the following list of reasons why Judge Dunwiddie should be elected are being signed, almost unanimously by citizens of the township who realize the danger of Grimm's election and consider Judge Dunwiddie the only candidate that can defeat him and save the judgeship for Rock county. The following is the list of resolutions, and some of the signers up to the time of going to press:

To the Voters of Clinton and Vicinity:
In the closing hours of this judicial campaign, we should lay aside individual preferences and rally to the support of Hon. B. F. Dunwiddie. While we have the utmost confidence and respect for the other candidates we feel deeply the importance of concentrating our strength now on the most available man in order to hold the honor of judgeship in Rock county. Our reasons are—

1. Judge Dunwiddie has filled the high office for many years with dignity, and is absolutely without just criticism. Why should he not be re-elected? Is it fair not to elect him?

2. Judge Dunwiddie was born and raised in Green county in this district and will easily carry Green county. He will certainly get a good endorsement in Jefferson county. Therefore, Rock county cannot afford to divide its vote, if we rally to the support of Judge Dunwiddie, we can elect him and save the judgeship to Rock county; if we divide our vote neither of the Rock county candidates can be elected. Remember the true saying, "United we win, divided we lose." Vote for B. F. Dunwiddie and save the honor for Rock county and her adopted son.

Signed: F. A. Ames, S. S. Jones, A. W. Shepard, F. B. Rogers, M. A. Patchen, C. S. Johnson, H. J. Napier, J. L. Pangborn, C. W. Coliver, H. A. Moehlenpach, A. V. Peters, C. L. Hanson, L. L. Olds, Geo. M. Reed, E. J. Kemmerer.

PINT OF ALCOHOL COSTS SELLER $77

W. I. Hartshorn of Clinton Junction, Heard His Sentence in Court This Afternoon.

Fifty dollars and costs amounting to $27.94 was the penalty imposed this afternoon by Judge Pihl on W. I. Hartshorn, proprietor of a pharmacy and general store at Clinton Junction, who was found guilty on Thursday by a jury in municipal court of selling liquor without a permit. The fine and costs were paid. The specific offense on which the prosecution was based was the sale of a pint of alcohol to Dr. C. W. Coliver, a dentist, on Feb. 9, without prescription or affidavit to the effect that it was to be used for medicinal, scientific, or mechanical purposes. As a matter of fact the defense showed that the alcohol was used for a lamp. Nevertheless District Attorney Fisher insisted that the law had been violated and the jury so found. A second count against the defendant for selling whiskey was nolle and evidence as to any other alleged transactions, save that of the alcohol, was not admitted.

Lou Corbet of Michigan, a horse-buyer, who has been visiting George Charleton, left for home last evening.

Again has Cupid, made bold by former onslaughts into the camp of the Bristol Bachelor Girls' club, been rewarded in his efforts, and as a result one of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rowbottom of Bristol on Wednesday, March 28, when Miss Lula Rowbottom became the wife of Francis A. Barter of Harvard, Ill., but formerly of Janesville. The house was handsomely decorated, pink and green being the prevailing colors. At one o'clock, amid the sweet strains of Lohengrin's wedding march rendered by Miss Romilda Barry of Peru, Ill., the contracting party were made man and wife by the Rev. M. Chapman of the Bristol and Paris Congregational church. The bride was attired in a beautiful princess gown of white, trimmed with Valenciennes lace. The groom wore the conventional black. After the ceremony a dainty four-course luncheon was served. Among those from a distance who attended the nuptials were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barter, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barter, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barter, Miss Edith Barter, Messrs. Edwin and Will Barter, all of Pleasant Prairie, Wis.; Mrs. Arthur Ganes of Sheboygan, Wis.; Mrs. Charles Winslow of Oakley, Kansas; Misses Emilie and Romilda Holly of Peru, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rowbottom and F. O. Rowbottom of Chicago. After the wedding the happy couple left for Harvard, Ill., where they will be at home to their many friends after April 15. She is also a graduate of the Kenosha high school, class of 1899. Mr. Barter is one of Pleasant Prairie's well known young men, having been graduated from Kenosha high school, class of 1897. Those present were Edith Clark, Gladys Runtz, Hazel Wilkerson, May Kelly, Marjorie Williams, Marie Lovejoy, Francis Williams, Edna Bowerman, Mildred Gleason, Marjorie Wilcox, Clara Schwartz and Ella Mann.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE blowing up of the Red Star mill and shaft house shook the entire district with its possibilities of further violence and concealed beneath its dust and smoke the rich discovery in the Kelly mine. The partners had time to calculate chances and plan for the buying in of the property.

The din of controversy was deafening. The labor leaders disclaimed all knowledge of the outrage and roundly condemned it for the foolishly destructive act it really was. Kelly marched in among them like a grizzly bear and stormed thunderously. "You are responsible," he growled. "You sit here and send out appeals to the world while these hounds work their will. Where was Munro and his regulators?"

"They can't be everywhere," explained Carter. "No one supposed such a thing could happen in the daylight."

"You're all a set of chicken heads. You've created a power you can't control. I give you notice that if you don't get after the thieves that did this work I'll organize a vigilance committee and take charge of the whole gang of you."

And he strode out of the room, leaving the officers of the union disgraced and angry. He confessed to Raymond on his return that it was a foolish action.

"It was, Matt. You couldn't have done a worse thing. A large number of these dago miners already consider us their enemies, and this will confirm them. We might as well take steps to night to get our party of the third part in some sort of organization."

All this excitement and worry aided Raymond in tiding over the day, but when midnight came and the committee had slipped away into the night his sense of loss and a feeling of loneliness took possession of him. Ann had announced her intention to return to the Springs at the end of the week, and though she had vaguely promised to visit the peak again, Raymond was not deceived.

"She's quite right," he admitted to his better judgment. "A mining camp is no place for her or for Nora. Since the destruction of that mill it is even less desirable than before as a place of residence."

While on his way to the bungalow the following afternoon he met Munro accompanying a stranger, a big, blond, handsome fellow in a gray traveling suit and soft hat. His face was plump and his brown beard close clipped, and, though he realized that he was more or less in danger, his eyes were smiling.

Munro called out, "Rob, do you know this chap?"

"I do not."

Munro turned to his prisoner. "I thought you were lying."

The stranger remained untroubled. "I didn't say I knew Mr. Raymond. I merely said that I wanted you to take me to him. Mr. Raymond, I am Wayne Peabody, an old time friend of Miss Rupert. Will you please explain to this knight of the hills that I am in nowise interested in his strike?"

Raymond looked at him keenly. So this was the eastern lawyer—this fair man. "I think I have heard of you," he began slowly.

Louis arrived relieved the awkwardness of the moment. "Hello, Mr. Peabody, how did you get here?"

Peabody caught at the boy's hand. "Well, well, Louis, I'm glad to see you. You saved my life. How is Ann?"

"Fine! You ought to see her work. She's brown as oak. Come on, I'll take you to her. Gee, she'll be glad to see you!"

As Peabody excused himself and made off, Munro, with a world of meaning in his voice, softly swore. "Well, if I'd known that, I would have killed him and laid him away under a little rock."

She turned me down that other day, and it hurt. It hurts worse now that I've seen the other man. I really hoped you were the winner."

"She's out of our world, Jack," replied Raymond, and a large part of his resentment of Munro's impertinence vanished with the knowledge that he was a fellow sufferer in despair.

Munro went on gravely. "She had me going, sure thing. Why, I stopped drinking—just as I told you I would—and I cut off Chaire. Say, boy, that was a severe job! She raised dust for a day or two, but when the queen of heaven gave me my jolt I said, 'What the good?' and slipped into my old ways. Think of us strutting around the parade ground in front of the seats of the visitors with intent to beat out old Grant, and here we are! I'm polishing a mining camp, and you're paving dirt like a woodchuck. 'What a fall is there, my brother?'"

Raymond did not enjoy Munro's tone and changed the subject. "What are you going to do now?"

Munro ceased to laugh. "I am going to chinch this whole camp a little tighter from this on. I'm going to turn back every nonunion miner. All you fellows who are friendly can go on working just the same, but your men must put themselves on record."

Raymond's face, settled into stern lines. "Jack, I don't want to be mixed up in another man's fight. We are on good terms with our lands—they're a lot of cantankerous American citizens anyway and can't be coerced. I warn you not to monkey with our plant."

Munro laughed. "I'll fight shy, old man, so far as I'm concerned, but these dagoes and Poles are getting watch-eyed, and if they stampede they'll run over somebody. You don't believe in me and my cowboys, but the time may come when you'll see that I'm about the only commander in this camp."

"I see that now, Jack. That's why I'm talking to you. But you've started on a line of action that means war with organized society. You had no call to join those jackasses who ran Mackay out of camp. It was none of your funeral—had nothing to do with the question of wages."

Munro grinned. "He was such an ape."

"Yes, but it started you wrong. Now, I don't know who blew up the shaft house, but if you do your best plan is to cut those outlaws out and turn them back to the authorities."

"I don't know a thing. Of course the union had nothing to do with it. It was done by a few hounds full of peaches. These mine owners have got to give up their mine hour scheme. We've got 'em dead to rights, for I can drive every nonunion man out of camp if necessary, and my advice to you is, have your men march up and sign our rolls double quick."

"They can do as they please about that. I will bring no pressure to bear on them, but I'd like to ask you as a friend not to make it any harder than you can help for Kelly & Raymond. We've got all we can stagger under now, and the worst thing that can happen to us is delay. We've opened our vein, and we're going to buy in our mine inside of six weeks if nothing prevents."

Raymond walked on to his cabin with a heavier heart than he had carried since he left Burnett's home. Part of this was due to Munro's warning, but the larger part of it sprang from his meeting with Peabody, who was not at all the sort of citizen he had expected Ann's eastern lover to be. He was a man of power, dignity and decision, not an erratic idler like Barnett, and his air of quiet authority sprang from a strong personality securely placed in the world.

Louis came back to the cabin with a sly smile on his face. "What did you think of Mr. Peabody? Darn him, he's here to get Ann to go back to New York. I don't go. I tell you that!"

"Maybe she won't go?"

"I'm afraid she will," the boy gloomily replied. "He's got some kind of a 'drag' on her. He's been trying to get her on a long time."

Raymond's voice was calm as he asked, "What is his business?"

"Lawyer. He's rich too. Ann wants us both to come over to the Kellys to dinner. I don't want to go. Do you?"

"She's the captain," answered Raymond. "I reckon we'd better spruce up a bit."

"It makes me tired," the boy went on. "I wanted her to marry you, and then we could all live out here."

A half hour later Ann knocked. "Is any one at home?"

Raymond flung open the door. "We are all at home."

Ann introduced Peabody, who stood by her side, and the two men shook hands rather coldly while she said to Raymond, "Can you take care of Mr. Peabody for the night, and will you come over to dinner? You need have no more scruples, now that Woo is with us."

WOMAN'S NIGHT CURE

Backache, headache, nervousness, poor circulation, cold feet, leucorrhoea, nervousness, irritability, fainting spells, slight spasms, heat flashes, irregular menses, disposition to sleep, desire for solitude, bearing down feeling, pain at side of womb—these are the certain signs of woman's weakness. DR. KING'S NIGHT CURE is a local treatment that cures the cause for these ailments while the patient sleeps. For sale and recommended by

PEOPLE'S DRUG CO. AND KING'S PHARMACY.

Every Heart Beat

Forces about 8 ounces of blood out of the heart, and sends it coursing through the veins to the remotest part of the body. This is the amount required by nature to nourish and sustain your body. Every ounce less than this means a shortage in nature's supply of building-up material. A weak heart cannot meet this demand, and consequently you suffer. If your heart skips a beat, or flutters, palpitates, pains you, or you have shortness of breath, you may be sure that the heart is working imperfectly.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will strengthen the heart muscles and nerves.

"I had been a great sufferer for 15 years. At the time I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I had been confined to my bed for four months. I had frequent sinking spells, sometimes as many as three in a day, during which my heart would seem to stop beating, necessitating the calling of a physician to resuscitate me. Before finishing the first bottle the sinking spells had ceased, and I took altogether five bottles for a complete cure. I now enjoy perfect health, and am very grateful for this wonderful medicine, for it is the means of my being with my family now."

REMP AND BEZDEK IN A MARBLE GAME

University Paper Prints Ironical Account of Contest That Will Replace Football.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Madison, Wis., March 31.—A state of insurrection exists in the student body of the University of Wisconsin over the prospective sports, according to the determination of the faculty committee on athletics. Great letters have been painted across the front of the massive university gymnasium, "Ping-Pong Hall." It was the work of a large party of students in the college of engineering, and the job is an exceedingly good one, being as artistic as would be accomplished by a satisfactory sign painter.

The letters were about two feet high and the work required the placing of a large swinging scaffolding from the roof. The letters were outlined Wednesday and the paint applied twenty-four hours later. Workmen were put to the removal of the sign, the university authorities being determined that the paint should not be allowed to dry, but a good and plainly visible on the remains.

The university paper, the Daily Cardinal, which has sometimes been under faculty dictation, has broken loose and occasionally takes a vigorous "knock" out of the anti-football faculty. The last expression is a somewhat ingenious prospective picture of athletics a year hence. A game of intercollegiate marbles between "Dick" Remp and Hugo Bezdek, football heroes of Wisconsin and Chicago, is described as follows:

A. D. 1907, May 10.—Special to the Daily Cardinal.—Yesterday afternoon, before one of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds ever gathered at Camp Randall, amidst the strains of "Hot Time" and the varsity yells from the bleachers, Hugo Bezdek representing the University of Chicago and Richard Remp of Wisconsin battled for the Western Intercollegiate Marble Championship. Remp having won the trophy offered by Louis Sumner was selected by Coach King to represent Wisconsin in this decisive contest. The Chicago delegation occupied the north bleachers. The south and end bleachers were a solid mass of cardinal.

At 2:15 p. m. Col. Duke and his army formed ranks on each side of the field to see that the decisions of the officials were strictly adhered to. Bezdek came on the field at 1:57 immediately followed by Remp. After shaking hands they walked up to the referee and received their allotted marbles. Remp asked for a little time while John Hickey went to the "gym" for Dick's favorite shooter. Hickey soon returned and the game was called.

The following is the detailed account of the game:

Remp won the "lag" by one-half inch and shot a "glazie" out from "law," but being out of range, on his second shot "baby" into the ring. Bezdek yelled "events" but Remp had "knuckled down" so the referee decided in Remp's favor, and at the same time fined Bezdek one "come" for saying "Oh Fudge." Bezdek then shot, but missed Remp's shooter by a hair's breadth.

Time was taken out while Remp's shooter was cleaned and on his next shot he made a spectacular play, knocking the marble out from a distance of three and one-half feet.

The Wisconsin rooters went wild. Score: Wisconsin 1 up and 4 to play. In the second game Bezdek skinned the ring from "law." Score: One all and 3 to play.

The third game resulted in a tie, each having won their "bates." Remp was fined two "comes" for judging on his last shot. The score remained the same.

In the fourth game Wisconsin's hopes were lost when Bezdek again "skinned the ring" on Remp's error, having missed an easy shot. Score: Chicago 1 up and two to play.

In the fifth game Bezdek's fingers began to twitch as he knelt on the pillow, showing signs of overtraining. Remp had "clearness" and "peppered" Bezdek's shooter, immediately hollering "picks" he "skinned the ring," thus winning the fifth game. Score: Two all and one to play.

Great excitement prevailed. Col. Duke's army with fixed bayonets drove the crowd from the field. Time was taken out. Bezdek's knuckles had given out, and he was obliged to continue the game by shooting "Joggy Knuckle." Remp's superiority showed itself and he easily won the game, giving Wisconsin the championship.

Final score—Wis. 2, Chicago 2. Referee—Lieut. Hackett. Umpire—Rheinhardt. Actual time of play—25 minutes. Scorers: Wisconsin Jimmy Bush, Chicago, Beckersall.

writes Mary E. Shelton, of Poplar Bluff, Mo., "I can do my housework, although, before taking CARDUI, two doctors had done me no good. I can truthfully say I was cured by Cardui. I want every suffering lady to know of this wonderful medicine."

Woman's Nightmare

No woman's happiness can be complete without children; it is her nature to love and want them as much as it is to love the beautiful and pure.

The critical ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so fraught with dread, pain, suffering and danger, that the very thought of it fills her with apprehension and horror. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend so prepares the system for the coming event that it is safely passed without any danger. This great and wonderful remedy is always applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the trying crisis without suffering.

RURAL MAIL MAN HAS THE RIGHT OF WAY

All Teams Should Turn Out for His Cart if They See Him Coming Along.

The postmaster general has issued a notice that all rural mail carriers have the right of way on all country roads and that all other carriages or conveyances must surrender the right-of-way to the rural carriers. This order was issued as the result of numerous complaints on the part of carriers who were not able to deliver their mail in the specified time because carriages and conveyances which they met, refused to give them the right-of-way and often made it necessary for them to drive slower or to wait until the road was clear before they could proceed. A fine will be charged to all who in any way interfere with the speedy delivery of the rural mail, and as a carrier is also fined and sometimes deposed for late delivery he will no doubt see to it that any person responsible for his delay will have the punishment instead of himself.

THE CITY OF VANCOUVER GREETED PRINCE ARTHUR

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Vancouver, B. C., March 31.—Right loyal was the welcome to Prince Arthur of Connaught today, when he and his suite reached the city on the steamship Princess Victoria. The city and harbor were astir early. Immense crowds assembled along the water front and thousands of cheers mingled with the national anthem and salutes from the harbor ships and land batteries as the steamship came up the harbor. Visits were exchanged between the prince and the civic, naval and military authorities. The sixth regiment formed an escort of honor. After the formalities of greeting had been disposed of the royal visitor and his party were taken on a drive through Stanley park and to points of interest in and about the city. The main feature of the entertainment program takes place in the hall this evening, when his royal highness will inspect the sixth regiment and be presented with a civic address of welcome.

The prince will leave the city early tomorrow morning for the east by special train over the Canadian Pacific railway, and will stop off at various points, including Banff, to enjoy the scenic splendors of the Rockies before paying brief visits to Calgary, Regina and Winnipeg.

GERMAN BAPTIST MINISTER ONE HUNDRED YEARS OLD

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Indianapolis, Ind., March 31.—The Rev. Samuel Murray, for fifty-three years a resident of Miami county, will tomorrow round out one hundred years of life. He was born in Lancaster, Pa., moved to Ohio, and later to Indiana, on the farm he has occupied since. Of his sixteen children, twelve are living. Three of his sons, like himself, are ministers. The Rev.

Mr. Murray is a German Baptist and he retired from active ministerial work eight years ago. He is still vigorous, physically and mentally, and expects to celebrate his centenary tomorrow by preaching a sermon from his old pulpit.
